INVITATION DANCING PARTY

Girls' Club Will Hold One on Tuesday Evening, Nov. 25.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Girls' Club was held in the club room on Thursday evening and with a large attendance.

The club members are planning to give an invitation dancing party on Tuesday evening, November 25th. This will be the first man affair of the season.

Plans are also being made for the Christmas sale on December 6th in the afternoon.

The chairman of each booth was appointed and are as follows:

Fancy Work, Miss Fay Trueman; Candy, Mrs. May Roberts; Useful Articles, Miss Marion Call.

The dance will be in charge of the entertainment committee.

The baked bean supper will be held on November 22nd, Saturday evening. The fair takes place on Saturday afternoon, December 6th from 2:30 to 6 o'clock.

A social hour followed the adjournment of the business meeting, and Miss Edith C. Brewster favored the girls with readings. Her first selection was "A Sisterly Scheme," a story written by H. C. Bunker, and the second was "The Necklace" by Guy de Maupassant. The girls enjoyed Miss Brewster's reading very much and gave her hearty thanks for her evening's entertainment.

GRAFFORT CLUB.

Art Needlework Members Hold Their First Meeting of the Season.

The Art Needlework Department of the Graffort Club held their first meeting in the Girls' Club room on Thursday afternoon. About thirty ladies are taking the course which is under the instruction of Mrs. R. H. Gardner of Dover. These lessons will be given twice a month at the Girls' Club rooms and are very interesting. Mr. G. H. Gardner conducted a beautiful display of the latest designs and materials of needlecraft.

GENERAL DIAZ IS STABBED TWICE

Mexican Makes Murderous Assault on Huerta Opponent in Havana Street.—Has a Vicious Neck Wound

Havana, Cuba, Nov. 6.—General Felix Diaz was stabbed by a Mexican at 10:30 o'clock tonight. He was wounded twice, probably not fatally.

The attack on Diaz occurred while he was walking on the Malecon, a fashionable promenade. He was wounded behind the ear and in the neck, besides receiving several blows on the head from a cane.

Diaz was removed to a hospital. His assailant was arrested.

General Felix Diaz made his escape from Mexican soil on October 27th taking refuge on board the U. S. gunboat Wheeling at Vera Cruz. He was transferred to the Louisiana and from there to the battleship Michigan, later being put aboard the Esperanza, which reached Havana on Monday last.

As long ago as October 15th the Cuban government was warned that a band of Mexican conspirators were planning to kill General Diaz who was then on his way from Europe to Mexico. The Cuban government took precautionary measures and Diaz was closely guarded when he landed at Havana on his homeward voyage.

There were rumors of other plots against his life when it was learned that he was to return to Havana. A late Vera Cruz dispatch reported that Diaz had left behind him there alleged proof that an agent of the government was on his way to Vera Cruz with orders to take Diaz to Mexico City dead or alive.

Was Presidential Candidate

General Diaz was the candidate of the National Democratic party for the presidency. He had been sent out of the country by General Huerta as head of a special Mexican mission to Japan, but returned for the purpose of carrying on his campaign. When he arrived at Vera Cruz October 23, he found the situation so threatening he did not dare to continue on to the Mexican capital. General Huerta sent him an invitation to come to Mexico City and even dispatched an envoy to endeavor to induce Diaz to accept the invitation. He declined to do so and finally made his way to the American Consulate from which he escaped to a launch which carried him to the wharf.

General Felix Diaz is a nephew of Porfirio Diaz, the former president of the republic. A year ago he headed a revolutionary movement at Vera Cruz which was promptly suppressed. He headed the revolt against President Madero in Mexico City last February which ended in the overthrow of Madero and the assumption of the presidency of General Huerta.

WASHINGTON HAS HEARD NOTHING NEW

Washington, Nov. 6.—No new developments good, bad or indifferent—this was the word that came from the White House late today as to the status of the Mexican situation, following the presentation to Provisional President Huerta of the wish of the United States that he resign.

JUSTIN ADAMS AT PORTSMOUTH THEATRE

Justin Adams the popular playwright and author of "Quincy Adams Sawyer," and other sketches, appears in the farcical comedy in two acts, entitled "As Old As the Hills," at the Portsmouth Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon and evening, November 10, 11, and 12. Although this is a high class and expensive act, the same little prices will prevail and the acts will be to cents as usual, with a few reserved seats at 20 cents.

Mr. Adams is supported by a fine cast and is quite the thing in this side-splitting comedy.

The following is the cast of characters: Benjamin F. Blodgett, a retired business man Justin Adams; Bill Boardman, a star boarder J. P. Clark; John Holmes, a jealous husband Leo Perria; Letitia Blodgett, a "militant" wife Emma Whitte; Alma Blodgett, her daughter Lillian Willard; Lulu Van Tassel of the Comique Theatre..... Helen Butler.

Scene—Living room of the Holmes residence, New York City.

Time—A lapse of two weeks between the acts.

WOMEN WILLING TO AID STRIKE

Demand Governor to Force Arbitration at Indianapolis.—Martial Law May be Expected Any Moment

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—Indiana's entire national guard consisting of more than 5000 soldiers were stationed in different parts of Indianapolis ready to do duty. Special troops brought the troops under hurried orders and they were detained in the suburbs, virtually surrounding the town. Great secrecy was maintained as to the movement and arrival of the militia, and few citizens even knew that they had been called out late tonight.

The trains bringing the troops were stopped outside of Indianapolis by officers of the national guard and given directions.

All companies were held when they arrived until they were of such numbers that it was deemed safe to bring them into the city. This was done to prevent any clash with the strikers who after learning that the troops had been called out, were on the downtown streets in large numbers.

The troops will not begin duty until early tomorrow morning. In the meantime Indianapolis more nearly resembled a huge military camp than a quiet capital city.

Soldiers May Man Cars

Whether the street cars are to be manned by soldiers, officers in charge would not say tonight. Martial law had not been declared early tonight, but such proclamation is expected to be issued from the governor's office before morning.

Late this afternoon nearly 300 were

LOOKING OVER THE BRIDGE SITE

Railroad Engineers of Boston and Maine Here Today for Inspection

A special train with Chief Engineer A. B. Corbitt of the Boston & Maine railroad and associate engineers arrived here shortly after ten o'clock this morning for inspection of the Portsmouth and Kittery bridge. The visit of these officials was in connection with the proposed new structure across the river, and they spent a good part of the forenoon viewing the site for the span to connect the two states. Though little could be learned from these men direct, it is the opinion of railroad men that the Boston & Maine has at last agreed that something must be done in this matter which has been under consideration for 20 years or more.

REFUSES TO GIVE UP EILLS

Abducted Daughter From Boston Home, But Perjury Is Charged.

Tokio, Nov. 7.—The extradition to the United States of John Eills, business manager of the Japan Advertiser, and formerly of Manchester, N. H., and Boston, has been refused by the government.

Eills was arrested on Oct. 13 on a requisition from the American ambassador on a charge of perjury.

He was said to be wanted in Boston for the abduction of his daughter.

Abduction is not an extraditable offense, and for this reason the American ambassador asked for the arrest of Eills on a perjury charge.

Eills himself requested the Japanese government not to deliver him up, stating that he desired to acquire Japanese citizenship.

ROGERS MISSION BAND.

Members Meet to Prepare for Coming Christmas Sale.

The regular meeting of the Rogers Mission Band was held in the chapel of the North Congregational church on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with an attendance of ninety-six children. The boys worked on necktie holders while the girls made aprons, towels and holders for the coming sale which will take place before Christmas.

A little talk on "Stewardship and Giving" was delivered and the milk boxes were given out. A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments of crackers and hot chocolate were served. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Hamford were the hostesses of the occasion.

MIDDLE STREET CHURCH NOTES

Girls' Guild Hold Interesting Session—C. E. Society Arranging for Entertainment.

The Girls' Guild of the Middle Street Baptist church met Thursday evening in the Guild Room. The business of the evening was discussed, followed by a social hour. Mr. Baldwin A. Reicu treated the girls with ice cream and cakes.

The Men's Class met in the chapel of the Middle Street Baptist church last evening. There was a business meeting followed by a social hour and refreshments were served.

The Christian Endeavor Society connected with the Middle Street Baptist church has arranged to give a stereopticon entertainment in the church on the evening of December 5th.

Mrs. Martha A. Priggett of Lancaster, past president of the Rebecca Assembly, who has just returned from the Yosemite Park where she took 100 views has been engaged to present them on the above date, and this announcement should be sufficient to fill the church. Mrs. Priggett is a veritable warshipper in Nature's Temple, and her opportunities to assemble together a superb series of views from one of the most remarkable valleys in the world has not been lightly passed over. Her description of the views, though necessarily concise will be of deep interest as she is a good delineator.

SAD CASE AT YORK HOSPITAL

Bride of Three Weeks Slowly Dying of Potomac Poisoning and Physicians Baffled.

Mrs. Graham B. Elliott of Barton, Vt., a bride of only three weeks is dying at the York Hospital, the victim of a mysterious poisoning. Her husband is nearly prostrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Simonds.

The young couple were married Oct. 27, after a courtship extending over several years. Mr. Elliott is a farmer, with good prospects and the future looked bright indeed, as they left their Vermont home in journey to Lakeport, N. H., for a short visit with Mrs. Elliott's aunt. From the New Hampshire town they came to York Beach a week ago last Saturday, to visit Mrs. Nelson Simonds, another aunt of Mrs. Elliott's.

A week ago Tuesday evening Mrs. Elliott was taken suddenly ill during the night and as soon as possible a physician was called to the home to treat her. Her case was at once recognized to be serious and she was removed to the hospital. Here every effort known in medical science has been reported in the effort to save her life, but to no avail. Although suffering but little pain, and with a mind bright and clear, Mrs. Elliott is slowly sinking in the shadow of death, and the end may come any time.

This case is an unusually sad one, made so from the fact that Mrs. Elliott is a bride of three weeks, that future prospects for happiness were bright and that there is absolutely no hope for her recovery.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Simonds, are grief-stricken at Mr. and Mrs. Elliott had made plans to enjoy a part of their honeymoon at their beach home. Mrs. Elliott was a school teacher previous to her marriage.

GERMANY SENDING A FLEET TO SOUTH AMERICA

Berlin, Nov. 6.—The newest German battleships, the Kaiser and Koensig, and the cruiser Straussburg, have been ordered to leave Germany early in December for South American waters, visiting the German West African colonies on their way.

The cruise is said to be intended merely as a test voyage, but the newspapers here, will evidently be available for service on the Mexican coast in case of need.

German naval circles regard the South American cruise as patent evidence that Anglo-German tension is disappearing, as this is the first time German battleships have been detached from the North Sea fleet since the naval rivalry between Germany and Great Britain became acute.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

The case of the Boston Ice Company vs. the Boston and Maine railroad is still being heard in the United States District Court. There are many more witnesses to be heard for the defense and several in rebuttal so that it is hardly possible that the case will be finished this week.

The first case for next week will be that of Phineas vs. the Atlantic Shore Line Ry., an action for damages for injuries received by Robert W. Phineas by being thrown from an electric car in the defendant's road at Ellot. This is scheduled for Tuesday.

Those who remained in the country with the expectation of having some good weather are not disappointed,

GIRL YIELDS TO POISON TABLETS

Cora Towne Dies at St. Johnsbury Hospital—Flynn Is Held.

St. Johnsbury, Vt., Nov. 6.—Cora Towne, the daughter of a local physician, died at the St. Johnsbury hospital this noon.

An autopsy on the body will be performed tomorrow by Dr. H. H. Stone of Burlington, of the state laboratory, and the hearing of Fred Flynn, the chauffeur, who is accused of having given the girl the poison, will be postponed until the result of the autopsy is known.

The Towne girl, who is 24 years old, was taken ill Saturday, the day before she had planned to marry George Conner, a member of Berlin, N. H.

It is claimed that while the girl was dying at the hospital she twice told Sheriff W. H. Worthen that Flynn gave her the poison when she complained of pains in her stomach. Flynn denies the girl's statement and said she had shown him the tablets and he had warned her not to use them. Miss Towne had been an inmate of the house of correction and was on probation.

SAW NAVY MAN KISS GOVERNOR

Testimony of Negro Butler Causes Sensation in the Walker Case.

Newport, R. I., Nov. 4.—Testimony to the effect that James W. G. Walker, son of the late Admiral Walker and formerly of the naval civil engineer corps, kissed Miss Madeline M. Cochrane of Boston, a governess in the Walker home, was brought out today in the trial of the divorce petition of Nina Walker, wife of the former lieutenant.

Following medical testimony of yesterday indicating that the wife's charge of misconduct with the young woman seemed groundless, the story told on the stand today by Charles Hapley, a negro butler in the Walker home at Charleston, S. C., caused a sensation. He swore he had seen Lieut. Walker kiss Miss Cochrane at the Charleston summer home in 1902 as she stood before a mirror fixing her hair, and that at other times he saw her sit in Walker's lap in the Walker household.

Lieut. Walker was at one time stationed at the Portsmouth navy yard.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" Best for Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels—Tastes Delicious

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the dose mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children its different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't know what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious California Syrup of Figs. Its action is positive but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless fruit laxative handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to cleanse the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of California Syrup of Figs, which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits and here. See that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

WOMEN WILLING TO AIL STRIKE

men members of the Garment Workers' Union rushed across the State House lawn into the capitol and into the governor's office where they demanded that Governor Ralston force arbitration in the street car strike and call a special session of the state legislature. Many of the women were hysterical, and Mrs. Edna Davis, president of the union declared:

Women Stand By Strikers

"We are willing to take up arms to help win this strike."

Governor Ralston answering the women, asserted that he had no authority to force arbitration, but that he had taken an oath as governor of Indiana to support the constitution and enforce the laws. He said he was in sympathy with the union men, but could not allow a condition of lawless ness and it was his sworn duty to protect life and property.

Brig. General William McKee is said to have stated that he knew nothing of the street car strike officially, but had been told there was rioting in Indianapolis, and that he had been ordered to end the disorder. This, he said he would do.

A suit for reverter for the street car company, which was set for a hearing today, was postponed until tomorrow, because of the illness of one of the attorneys of the company.

A second suit for a receivership was filed today by Judge Frank Roby former member of the state appellate court.

No attempt was made by the company to move the cars today.

Officials and Employees Meet

Governor Ralston announced tonight that he was withholding the proclamation of law in hope that the strikers and the street railway company would be able to come to terms during the night. It was learned that Judge Thomas Duncan and Charles Murphy of the Indiana Public Utilities commission had asked officials of the company to submit the trouble to arbitration. The street car representatives agreed to receive a committee of five own employees and try to come to an agreement with them providing the charter of the local union from the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railroad Employees was cancelled and that the leaders of the strike and organizers depart from the city.

The company also agreed that in case it and the committee from the employees were unable to reach an agreement by November 30 to leave the settlement with the public utilities commission.

None of the strikers would express an opinion as to what the strikers would do in regard to the company's proposals.

Four companies of the state militia are quartered in the basement of the State capitol. As the troops marched along the streets they were booed by the crowds.

At a meeting tonight the strikers refused to agree to the terms submitted by the street car company and made a counter proposal. The nature of this new proposal was not divulged but a committee went to the home of Governor Ralston to confer with him.

THE FINEST LAXATIVE IN THIRTY CENTURIES

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil Is Truly Tasteless—Not Flavored or Disguised.

For 3,000 years castor oil has been the world's best laxative, but until now it was offensive, sickening taste has limited its use.

For 3,000 years chemists have tried to remove the taste.

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is just what the name means—a pure, clear, refined oil without any taste. It is the newest product of Spencer Kellogg & Sons of Buffalo, large refiners of vegetable oils.

Anybody can disguise the taste of castor oil by mixing it with alcohol, wintergreen, peppermint or other flavors, but it remained for the Kelloggs to keep the oil pure and make it tasteless. Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil works even better than the old, evil dose, without pain or griping. Children take it easily.

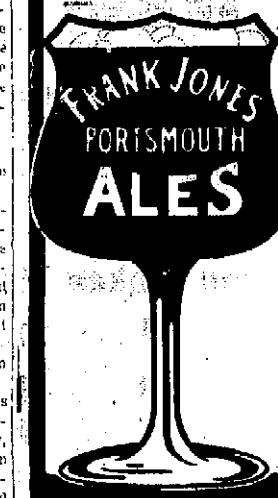

Sold now in all drug stores, 25c and 50c. Ask for Kellogg's Tasteless and look for the trade mark on the label—a green castor leaf, bearing the Kellogg signature. Made only by Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., Buffalo, N. Y., oil refiners.

AN ITALIAN STABBED OVER A FEW APPLES

Argument Resulted From Ownership
--Assailant Now Under Arrest.

Salvatore Mingone and Calogero Ugliaro, two Italians, got into an argument Thursday evening over a few apples and now Mingone is at the Portsmouth Hospital on the dangerous list, while Ugliaro is locked up at the Kittery lock-up.

Both men live at the Italian camp near Spinneys Switch in Kittery and as far as can be learned they got into an argument over a few apples that Mingone had. The argument ended in a fight and in the mix-up Mingone received a nasty knife wound in his right side.

He was brought over to the home of a friend in this city and Dr. F. S. Towle called, and he ordered him to the hospital. The wound, made evidently with a knife, extended down the right side 4 1/2 inches long and very deep. He was bleeding freely and at the hospital it was feared internal injuries. Later Drs. Towle and Eastman opened his side to stop at internal bleeding.

The local police looked into the stabbing and notified Constable Chapman, who asked for help from the local police and Captain Burke. Seized officers McCaffery and Condon and special officer Charles T. Romeo, who went over in automobiles.

They raided the camp and located Ugliaro. He did not offer any fight but came along without trouble.

SIGNED CONTRACT FOR MARRIAGE TIES

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Signed contracts instead of religious vows today united Frederick A. Carpenter, a wealthy Chicago business man, and Miss Gertrude Wakefield Hassler, the "Velvet Slipper Girl," as husband and wife in the first ceremony of its kind on record.

Miss Hassler, who was a popular concert and church singer, recently came into public notice through her $500,000 "love balm" suit against Carl G. Fisher, multimillionaire automobile dealer and race promoter of Indianapolis. The suit was settled for $25,000.

This was the agreement signed by Carpenter.

"I, Frederick A. Carpenter, by this contract, take as my lawful wife, Gertrude Wakefield Hassler, and I promise and agree to be faithful in words and thoughts and deeds, to protect and devote my life to her to bring her the happiness and contentment she so well deserves."

The marriage contracts were signed at Kenosha, Wis. The one signed by the "contract bride" reads as follows: "I, Gertrude Wakefield Hassler, do by the signing of this contract, give myself to Frederick A. Carpenter, to be his lawful wife, to have, to hold and to love. I promise to be faithful as long as he proves true and I will strive to fill with a vast measure of contentment each day of our lives thus joined."

After the reading and signing of the contracts Miss Hassler's mother put both her daughter's hands in Carpenter's and said: "May all the good and truth of the universe combine to keep your hearts bright."

Miss Hassler's suit against Fisher attracted widespread attention. She herself furnished the climax when she took the stand, and told her story of the millionaire clubman. She said that Fisher at one time had begged her to allow him to take one of her velvet slippers with him to Europe. Many love letters were produced by the girl. In one of them Fisher expressed a wish to be back again in her "soothing arms."

Fisher admitted that he admired Miss Hassler greatly, but denied that he had ever promised to marry her.

ANOTHER AVIATOR FLIES JP- SIDE DOWN

Chevillard Passes Over Aerodrome at Versailles With Machine Inverted.

Versailles, France, Nov. 6.—Maurice Chevillard, a French aviator, today imitated the example set by Adolphe Pegoud and flew over the aerodrome here in his biplane head downward. He also performed many other feats of aerial acrobatics.

TO IMPROVE FRANKFORD AR- SENAL.

A bill to appropriate $612,000 for improvements at the Frankford Arsenal was introduced in the House yesterday by Representative George W. Edwards of Pennsylvania, and it is believed that, as Senator Penrose has already promised to do all in his power to obtain financial aid for the arsenal the bill will pass. The introduction of the bill was due to the efforts of Colonel Montgomery, commandant of the arsenal.

Colonel Montgomery recommended new drop-proof buildings as a protecting of human life, as magazines filled with high explosives are now dangerously close to buildings in which shells and small ammunition are manufactured.

ROAST PIG SUPPER AT THE P. A. C.

The members of the P. A. C. enjoyed a roast pig supper at the club house on Thursday evening. Col. John H. Bartlett being the host.

Several young pigs were roasted and served with all the fixings that go to make a supper of this kind good and there were about a hundred of the members who were present and enjoyed the spread. The menu was:

Roast Stuffed Pig
Baked Sweet Potatoes Apple Sauce
Squash Onions Celery
Rice and Biscuits
Coffee and Cigars

A social hour followed with music etc and Col. Bartlett was given a ringing vote of thanks.

LYNN LASTERS STRIKE

Forty-five lasters, employed at the Hennessey, Maxwell and Hennessey shoe factory at Lynn, struck today without the authorization of the lasters' union. The strikers claim that the foreman had no right to discharge one of the workmen. Officials of the union visited the factory in an attempt to avert the strike but the men walked out despite this action. The company employs five hundred men.

Owes Her Life to This Lung Medicine

The manufacturers of Eckman's Alternative, a medicine for Croup and Lung Affections, regret that all sufferers of these serious troubles do not take the trouble to investigate for themselves what this medicine has accomplished during the past fifteen years in a number of cases. Read this:

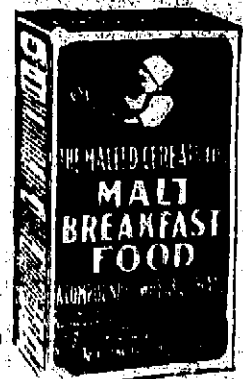

Griffith, Lake Co., Ind.
"Gentlemen: About September 10, 1909, my mother-in-law was taken sick with Catarrhal Pneumonia, which developed into Lung Trouble. In January when Mr. Wm. Berg, of St. Michael's Church, at Wheelersville, Ind., proposed her for death, he recommended that I get Eckman's Alternative, and see if it would not give her some relief. The attending physician declared she had Lung Trouble and was beyond all medical aid. So I immediately had Mr. Wm. Berg to send for a bottle. Practically without hope for recovery, I bought the bottle of Eckman's Alternative, which she did. I am glad to say that she soon began to improve. Now she works as hard as ever, weighs twenty pounds heavier than she ever did before she took sick, and is in good health."

(Alliedville) J. S. GRIMM
(Auntie abbreviated; more on request.)
Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Croup, Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Stomach Colds and in unobtainable the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet, telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman's Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and in Portsmouth by Benjamin Green.

WHY not give your lad the same training?

"When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading, that I did not understand, my father, instead of giving me the definition which I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things, besides the meaning of the individual word in the text—many other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary. Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the 'Unabridged' of those days. How the most modern Unabridged—The NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort. So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the non-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary work. Even those who possess the complete dictionaries, in several volumes, will find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to leave no room for doubt as to its accuracy. Alfred E. Cook, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of the English Language and Literature, Yale Univ., April 25, 1911."

This Beautiful Hair

Is like what you want your hair to be—

Lustrous, bright and glossy; soft, silky
and wavy.

To have beautiful
hair like this, use

HARMONY HAIR BEAUTIFIER

It's just what its name implies—just to make the hair glossy, and lustrous, and more beautiful—just to make it easier to dress, and more natural to fall easily and gracefully into the wavy lines and folds of the coiffure, just to give that delightful fresh and cool effect, and leave a lingering, delicate, elusive perfume.

Will not change or darken the color of the hair. Contains no oil; therefore, cannot leave the hair sticky or stringy.

Very pleasant to use, very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it.

To thoroughly clean your hair and scalp, use

Harmony Shampoo

A liquid shampoo to keep the hair clean, soft, smooth and beautiful. It gives an instantaneous rich, foaming lather, penetrating to every part of the hair and scalp. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments.

It leaves no lumps or stickiness.

—Just a refreshing sense of cool, sweet cleanliness.

—Just a dainty, pleasant and clean fragrance.

Both in odd-shaped ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops.

Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00; Harmony Shampoo, 50c.

Both guaranteed to please you, or your money back.

Sold only by the more than 7000 Retail Stores—The World's Greatest Drug Stores—and made in our own big Boston Laboratories, where all the delightful HARMONY, VIOLET DULCE and ROUGEET JEANICE Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made.

Portsmouth, N. H., Friday, November 7, 1913.

Give Us a Rest!

The perfect Denver man whom local medical authorities are trying to mate with the most perfect specimen of American womanhood has balked at last, although fifty perfect young women—according to their own valuation—are ready to cast their eugenic lot with him. A New York coterie of physicians are also having difficulty in negotiating a similarly ideal matrimonial venture. Something prophetically significant, perhaps, appears in this revolt against excessive prophylaxis, hygiene and physique.

An Illinois judge announces that he will hereafter allow all criminals to submit to an operation to cure their inherent defects before sentencing them to prison. We are told, of course, that crime is based on physical defects. The drunkard should never be locked up, the same authorities say. He's a sick man.

At Bryn Mawr twenty young girls have been selected for a hygienic experiment. It will take eleven years to produce results. But at the end of a special training course for this period it is hoped the young women will be "physically perfect above all else."

But even this excessive striving toward the Spartan goal is apt to defeat its own purpose. It is just as likely to produce a collection of neurasthenics and hypochondriacs. With them every pimple may be viewed with alarm. Every ache would be a symptom of impending disease. This tendency is exhibited in the literature of the day. All our pet from-boyhood-up theories are ruthlessly Woods-Hutchinsoned. We are even told that unbeknownst to ourselves we have run great risks. For example, we have never slept properly and through impaired respiration risked a plentiful assortment of the ills. We must not sleep on our backs—it affects our spine. We must not sleep on our left side—it hinders our heart action. We must not sleep on our right side—it compresses our liver. We must not sleep on our stomachs—it interferes with digestion.

Health is something like the watched kettle which never boils. It is far more likely to be attained by giving more attention to other things. And though physical health is important, we should remember that it ought to be but a means to better spiritual and mental things—not an end in itself.—Boston Herald.

The Need of Organization.

The need of organization in politics as well as in business was most forcibly shown in the recent election in Massachusetts. The democrats were well organized and the machine had its work well mapped out. On the other hand it is asserted that Congressman Gardner might have been elected if he had taken the advice of friends and not attempted to play a lone hand. His refusal to have the state committee conduct his campaign got him in disfavor with many of the prominent party workers at the start. The experience of both Mr. Gardner and Mr. Foss shows conclusively that party organization is still a necessary thing if a candidate desires to attain success.

The Wireless Distress Signal.

The newspaper paragraphers are trying to fit some words to the wireless signal "S O S," which is sent out by ships in peril, and which really do not stand for any particular words, but are used because they are easy to send and cannot well be mistaken for any other signal. The Boston Globe suggests "Send Out Succor," and the Dover Democrat adds "Save Our Ship," but it seems to us that "Sink or Swim" more tersely expresses the situation.—Laconia Democrat.

A person religiously inclined might interpret it "Save Our Souls."

Don't Trust Strangers.

Chief Schuettler of the Chicago police has been warning girls not to place confidence in strangers. He tells them: "Don't trust anybody you don't know; don't go to a place you know nothing about." The third of these has reference to cases where the telephone has been used to lure innocent girls to destruction. It is all good advice for the girls, in other places than Chicago; and it is also excellent advice for not a few fresh young men who are over-confident of their capacity to look out for themselves.—New Bedford Standard.

Insurance Costs Nothing.

Employees in factories are faring pretty well under the workmen's compensation act. There are 17,000 employers paying premiums to insurance companies in their behalf and in the year ended July 1 about 12,000 employees drew from that fund. And it cost them nothing. Before the law was made they would have had to sue for damages and perhaps fail to recover. The law is a good thing for the help, whatever it may be for the employer.—Lowell Courier-Citizen.

CURRENT OPINION

Stage Was Never Better Than It Is Today.

Just at present we hear some talk about the decadence of the drama, some opinion expressed that the drama is as bad as it can be. But these views are voiced, I think, largely by those who fail to consider the stage as a whole and really fix their attention on one or two plays unwisely exploited. There can be no question that the stage today is far better than at any previous period, certainly of the United States.

Fifty years ago the drama of the English language was simply contemptible. There was at that time a sharp division between literature and the drama. So bad were conditions then that respectable people were driven away from the theatre except when they went to see a great actor—Hoath, Keen, Cushman, for example. In those days respectable and discriminating people never went to the theatre to see pictures of contemporary life, for such pictures were not to be found on the stage. For pictures true to contemporary life people read novels.

What is particularly hopeful about the playwrights of today is that they are not trying to be literary. They are trying to be interesting, and most of them are trying to be truthful. By "literary truth," I do not mean portrayal of the external facts of life, but fidelity to the inner life, and it is this inner life that the younger men are trying to get. Personally I think the drama will be more important than prose fiction during the next twenty-five years.—Branford Matthews, Academic Critic and Student of the Drama.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Editor of the Herald:

Would appreciate space in your paper to answer a communication which appeared in another local paper under date of Nov. 4. Same referred to the wrestling game and was signed "Another Loyal Sport." Would suggest that in my article that he referred to I had no intention or desire of making misstatements, and, if they were not correct I am certainly a victim of misapprehension. However, I am of the opinion that the public are convinced that there is more truth in my communication than is contained in his.

In a general way he claims that all were fixed matches that were held here last winter. Now, if this is true and he has any evidence to back up the claim, why does he not take some of that five hundred dollars (easy money) that Dryden offered on the night of Feb. 11 and to anyone that could produce any evidence that the matches were not on the level. But no. He comes out to criticize Dryden for not making some of the "Ponchos" "easy money." Will state right here that perhaps this Ponchos money would be as hard to find now as it was on the night of the Dryden-Riverbank match when some friend of Ponchos loaned a challenge to the winter and after the match nobody could be found with enough money to post a suitable forfeit. Again he is taking some chances in accusing Dryden of fixing matches without, however, he has some substantial proof.

He claims that Ponchos won from Fritz Hanson in Boston because the match was on the level. This would imply that the Lacombe match was fixed. Is it possible that Ponchos would be a party to a fixed match when he is the only man who would not agree to lay down in Dryden?

He claims that there were no real champions here who wrestled under their own names, who were put on their backs by Dryden. Was Charles Bailey not champion of Vermont state, and did not Dryden put him on his back (also on his head) while he also put Fritz Hanson and many other good men on their backs?

While it is true that Joe Turner got a fall in about four minutes, it was agreed upon by all present that it was a chance fall, in a midget Dryden happened to fall with his feet off the mat and he may as well have had them on a cake of ice as on the slippery floor.

Regarding some of the contestants losing through default, that is as fair for one as another. Neither Dryden or any of his loyal supporters complained when he lost to Bob Riverbank in this manner.

Your denial that a Greek referee deflected at the original Ponchos-Dryden match is dead wrong, and you know it. He was a Greek from Lowell, Mass., by the name of James Pappas. It is not true that the writer got one put over on himself last year. On the contrary he paid his seventy-five cents and one dollar at each and every match and consider the money well spent, inasmuch as all matches were considered on the level. All of the matches held here last winter were good and clean and all "Loyal Sports" wish them to continue and do not care to see two men with such an ill feeling as is in existence between Dryden and Ponchos go on the mat to settle their differences, thus taking a chance of having a rough house and ending the game for good.

Dryden has offered time and time again to meet Ponchos in private and under present conditions it would be more proper for them to go out in some back woods and "go to it."

For this reason the writer and many others hope that they will never meet on the mat here in public. Again, Ponchos has never yet proved any great drawing card in this locality.

Regarding the Zyzzyva-Larich match there were many who were not misled that Zyzzyva got a square deal; in certain ways he did not stand very strong at that time, one newspaper mentioned that he was at that time appearing much time in Boston and, by the way, that was all that he was spending.

While it is perhaps all right for a wrestler to travel from city to city in following up the game, it is a great credit to any man to be able to make good in his home town. Very few can do this and find it much easier to go to a strange place to throw their bluff, for while at home those who know them have no confidence in their honesty.

There are, of course, a very few people in this town who view matters as you claim that you do. However, the writer is not as yet convinced that you are at all sincere in all you claim. In other words, you do not yourself believe one half you say or write. Again, it seems strange that one as wise as you should attend a string of fixed matches, paying out good money these hard and trying times.

Now, I can inform "Another Loyal Sport" that Dryden never tried to hire Ponchos to lay down; furthermore none of the men who were here last winter were hired to lay down. Dryden never did have, and at the present time has not got cold feet, neither is he any quitter. On the contrary he met all good men, who if not champions were all gentlemen, which is more than can be said of some who call themselves sports; both large and small with no show of a yellow streak and with one or two exceptions put them all to the test. You will have to agree with a large majority of those who attended last year's matches that Dryden is one of the greatest wrestlers of his class in the world today and should be desired to give up his entire time to the profession he could no doubt trim them all.

A LOYAL SPORT.

THE BOYLESS TOWN

A cross old woman of long ago
Delayed that she hated noise;
The town would be pleasant you know,
If only there were no boys.
Shes colded and fretted about it till
Her eyes grew heavy as lead,
And then of a sudden, the town grew still;
For all the boys had fled.

And all through the long and dusty street,
There wasn't a boy in view;
The baseball lot where they used to meet,
Was a night to make one blue.

The cherries rotted and went to waste,
There was no one to climb the trees;
And nobody had a single taste,
Save only the birds and bees.

There wasn't a messenger boy—not one—
To speed as such messengers can;
If people wanted their errands done
They sent for a messenger man.

There was little I ween, of frolic and noise;
There was less of cheer and mirth;
The old town since it lacked its boys
Was the dreariest place on earth.

The poor old woman began to weep,
Then awake with a sudden scream;
"Dear me!" she cried, I have been asleep.
And oh, what a horrid dream!
St. Nicholas.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's a Simple Recipe that Anybody Can Apply With a Hair Brush

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays by asking at any drug store for a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair, and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy, scaly and falling hair.

A well known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with this and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, lustrous and abundant.

GAVE SUPPER AND SOCIAL

Ladies' Benevolent Society of Court Street Church Acts
As Hosts.

The Benevolent Society of the Court Street Christian Church gave a very pleasant supper and social on Thursday evening. The menu was: baked beans, brown bread, rolls, relishes, assorted pies, coffee, tea.

The spirit of sociability throughout the evening was contagious and all heartily enjoyed the first meeting hours.

The supper was in charge of Mrs. George Robinson, chairman, and ably assisted by Mrs. Frank McMahon, Mrs. Lena Merrill and Miss Florence Gardner.

A business meeting followed, and the society decided to give a donation to the ladies at the Home for Aged Women this month; also to present to the public the Dunaway Concert Company of Boston in Association hall at a later date. Miss Dunaway represents the characters in Frances Lytle's charming story, "The Lady of the Decoration." This will be a rare treat to the people of Portsmouth and vicinity.

There will be a sale in the chapel of the church in the near future, and all the different branches of the church are to have booths and work in union to make the bazaar a great success.

EAT CABBAGE, FISH SAUSAGE, NEW BREAD

No Indigestion, Gas, Sourness or Upset Stomach if you'll take "Pape's Diapepsin"—Try This!

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, let this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of indigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

COURT TAKES A RECESS

Will Convene in December
With Judge O. W. Branch
Presiding.

On the petition of Judge Thomas H. Stines, counsel for George Wolf, Judge Pike with the consent of County Solicitor Gupill allowed bail at $500 each for Wolf until his case comes up in January.

Nine juvenile offenders were arraigned before Judge Pike in a special session and practically all placed on probation with the Probation Officer, R. D. McDonough.

Practically all of the criminal cases were disposed of, and the few remaining will be given a jury trial probably in January, as it is not likely that the jury will be brought back here.

Court took a recess on Thursday noon for three weeks from the newly appointed Judge O. W. Branch will come here for several weeks of court cases.

THE SPLENDOR OF ROMAN BATHS

The Romans had baths so splendid that they put our boastedness about modern sanitation to silence. The most famous of these are the baths at Carnae and Diocletian. In connection with these great baths, 4000 yards of vast galleries were used by slaves for the marvellous eating and ventilating systems. While excavating near these baths Prof. Valle and Gaetano Ferri have come upon splendid drains for carrying off the water. In spite of the many hundred years that have elapsed since they were built these drains are almost as good as they ever were. In these galleries besides the ordinary baths there are halls with niches where baths were taken for medicinal rites. This is proved by the inscriptions found on the walls. Many of these inscriptions are in Greek and are prayers to the Gods. The workmen have just finished carrying away about 200,000 cubic meters of earth. While excavating these drains they have found two splendid treasures. One is Venus with arms upraised. Only the head and some small fragments remain, but they are enough to show that it was a great masterpiece and the bath probably was dedicated to Venus. Nearby a splendid library has been found, with thousands of rare volumes, showing that the bathers had access to good books.

PORTSMOUTH THEATRE PROGRAMME

For Friday and Saturday

Life for Life—Bells. Drama
The practical value of the pulpit is revealed cleverly in an interesting story of life and death, overruling all class distinction.

Alkali Ike and the Wild Man—Excess Comedy.

He is a cowboy who agrees to take the place of the escaped wildman. Later he, himself, flies to the woods and there meets the real wildman. A great film for the children. Mr. Augustus Carney is featured.

ACT—Lewis & Young, Singing and talking.

The Doctor's Secret—Vivograph Drama.

It is stolen and makes a fortune for the thief who is obliged to leave it to the one to whom it rightfully belongs. Mr. Van Dyke Brooke is featured.

ACT—Two Sylphs—Xylophone.
The Fiance and the Fairy—Lullaby Drama.

A very pretty fantasy in which a girl is not perfectly satisfied with her rather unromantic fiance, and wants a lover like the picture of one of his ancestors which he shows her. Mrs. Upton's Device—Vivograph Comedy.

She devises ways and means at making a match between two young people. After many ups and downs she turns them to the opera, and the deed is done. Mrs. Upton is delightfully played by Miss Florence Dyer, one of the Vivograph's new leading women. Mr. Tefft Johnson plays opposite in her.

TO START THE SEASON APRIL 14

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Except for a rumor that St. Louis wanted catcher Cady of Boston, no trade talk reached the ears of the public when American League managers gathered today for their annual meeting here. The purchase of Cady was suggested to Robert McRoy of the Boston club in an informal way. It was said, but there was little chance of its going through.

Owner Farrell of the New York team was late in reporting for the meeting of the board of directors. Though he conferred with several other club owners he announced no deals as he joined the other directors in the gathering that preceded the session of the league.

Because of the statement yesterday that the demands of the players' fraternity would not be considered only slight interest was manifested in today's meeting. The club owners said little except routine business was likely to come up for consideration.

The National and American League seasons will open April 14 next, according to Pres. B. B. Johnson of the junior organization. Mr. Johnson has communicated with Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, the National League's official date maker, and both officials have agreed to the date for starting the season.

The later start will not prevent the World's Series from beginning on Oct. 8, as in the past, according to the plan to accomplish this, Pres. Johnson said the open dates in the 1914 schedule will be reduced to the lowest possible minimum.

COUNT FIFTY! NO RHEUMATIC PAIN

Rub pain away with a small trial bottle of old
"St. Jacobs Oil"

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism.
It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress.
"St. Jacobs Oil" conquers pain. It is a harmless local rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn or discolor the skin. It takes pain, sore-ness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops neuralgia, rheumatism, backache, neuritis and reduces swelling.

Lumber up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness.

This decree will relate to the Bertha Timber land and several other tracts amounting to approximately 75,000 acres.

A Southern Appalachian organization has just been formed in North Carolina to co-operate with the forest service towards the conservation of the Southern Appalachian forests. It is much along the line of the society for the preservation of New Hampshire forests and the latter must look to its laurels, it expects to keep in the forefront rank for the southern organization starts out on line to protect its state forests and to work in entire harmony with the Federal authorities. Governor Crisp of North Carolina is the president and George S. Powell of Asheville the secretary of the new organization, which has not yet decided on its official name. Its purpose is to co-operate with the Federal Service and with the National Forest Reserve commission in advancing purchases in the Southern Appalachian region. Thus far the Southern Appalachian have not crossed swords with federal officials, as has been the case in New Hampshire, but have accidentally put through congress the Weeks bill, whereby all these purchases are made, had not chosen as smooth a course in its federal dealings. The recent protest of the governor and attorney general espied the climax, and if New Hampshire is to receive her share of the benefits of forest conservation bestowed by the Weeks law, a get-together policy is badly needed.
The New Hampshire society and Appalachian club have done splendid work, but there have been many clashes between individual sellers and the government, regarding price and conditions that have not been conducive to the immediate requirement of large tracts in White Mountain section where conservation is much to be desired.

press dispatches from Mexico City describing the last representations made to Huerta had the situation clarified for them to an extent today by administration officials. From the White House it became known today that the views of the United States upon the recent election in Mexico was set forth in a telegram to Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the charge d'affaires of the American embassy at Mexico City. This telegram contained certain instructions.

Just what the instructions were was not divulged by the officials, who said that they were of a confidential nature. It was recalled that when the negotiations began with the Huerta government there was a formal note but instructions to John Lind, in this way recognition of the Huerta government, through technicality, was avoided.

From the White House officials discussed the situation, there existed no doubt in official circles tonight that the instructions to Mr. O'Shaughnessy to convey the desires of the United States to General Huerta were substantially as outlined in dispatches from Mexico City last Monday, although the state department's denial that an ultimatum had been sent was regarded by many conversant with the situation as indicating that the United States government's communication to Mr. O'Shaughnessy did not necessarily mean that it had said its last word in parleys.

Huerta Will Convene Congress

It became evident at the White House that the President considers the elections of October 26th not only invalid as to the vote of the presidency and vice presidency but also as to the election of members of congress. The news dispatches today indicated that General Huerta would convene the newly elected congress and abide by their decision as to the legality of the elections. This was looked upon generally here as an intention on the part of General Huerta to have the election nullified while he continued in power indefinitely.

Though the President made it plain to callers that he had no intention at present of laying the subject before congress, he is keeping in close touch with the capital through Chairman Bacon of the senate foreign relations committee. It is not regarded as likely that the President will make any more trouble until he hears from General Huerta through Charge O'Shaughnessy.

Discuss Alternative Measures

The President incidentally in the situation spoke of the loyal attitude of Charge O'Shaughnessy. Alternative measures that the United States might take in event of a rejection by Huerta of the American demands were variously discussed today in official circles. Attention centered chiefly on the proposal to remove the embargo on arms. The President indicated that nothing new had been determined upon in this connection. In his recent address to congress he took a strong position against giving arms to any faction on the ground that more millions of war meant added inhumanity in the strife.

Members of congress and especially many of the senate foreign relations committee, think the embargo should be lifted and that the constitutional would then be able to meet Huerta by force of arms. This action is being strongly urged on President Wilson.

For pastry there is nothing to compare with

Cottolene

Cottolene "creams up" beautifully, always, and every cook knows what an advantage that is. It is always plastic and blends readily with the flour or sugar.
This makes Cottolene especially pleasant to use in cakes, pastry, sauces, biscuits and the like.

Have you tried Cottolene yet? If not, do at least test it for yourself. You will then understand some of its many advantages. At the same time, do not forget that food experts advocate this wholesome shortening as reliable, economical and digestible.

DEMOCRATS WANT ALL THE GLORY OF CURRENCY BILL

Washington, Nov. 6.—Following efforts by President Wilson to win through Senator Weeks, support for the Administration Currency bill, it became known this afternoon that the President cannot control the Democrats in the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency, and that a Democratic Senate caucus will be called for next week.

Also, it is understood, that far from obtaining material concessions from the Republicans through Senator Weeks, the Administration intimated that it would yield many points on its own side, but declared it would stand firm for fundamentals of its bill. The bony structure, as the Administration puts it, is essential to the flesh, and the fight for the main features will be continued to the finish.

The consideration of the bill in caucus now will make it a party measure, a course deprecated by Senator Weeks and other Republican leaders in financial thought and legislation.

Besides presaging bitterness in the Democratic party, caucus consideration of the bill will justify the Republicans in regarding it as a strictly partisan measure and will give them opportunity to discuss it at such length on the floor as to preclude its passage at this session and well into the next.

"GETS-IT" Gets Corns Sure as Fate

If You've Had Corns for Months or Years, "GETS-IT" Will Remove Them All in a Few Days

"When I hurt up to my heart, I've tried almost everything for corns. Corn-sufferers, cornless joy is at hand! 'GETS-IT' is the only real enemy any corn ever had. Put 'GETS-IT' on in 2 seconds, and away they go, shrivel, vanish. No more cotton-rings to make the corn sharper and more bulky, no more bandages to stop circulation and stifle in the stocking, no more salves to turn the flesh raw and make the corn 'pull,' no more knives to remove with danger of bleeding and blood poisoning.

"I Don't Wonder People Go Crazy Happy Over 'GETS-IT.' It Gets Every Corn Sure and Quick.

"GETS-IT" is painless, stops pain, and is absolutely harmless to healthy flesh. Warts and bunions disappear. Use immediately.

"GETS-IT" is sold at drugstores at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price to E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

HERE'S COMFORT!

Reznor Gas Heaters are comfort makers. Sitting in the cozy glow of one of these little heating marvels is like taking a sun bath. It fairly wraps you round with golden light and saturates you with genial warmth.

REZNOR GAS HEATERS

"Quick heat for cold rooms"

are an economical solution of the home heating problem at those particular seasons of the year when furnace heat is burdensome. And for rooms too far from the furnace to be easily warmed, they are fine.

Don't suffer with the cold; a Reznor Gas Heater, lighted a few moments will give you the balmy air of June. Just a stroke of a match does it all—no fussing and poking at a balky furnace—and when you are done, turn a key and the fire's out.

We'd like to have you see these wonderful heaters. They are the Original Copper Reflector Gas Heaters. We know you'd appreciate them. Come in and let us show you.

of Portland, Me., will be nominated by President Wilson as secretary of the Interior and commissioner of the Philippine Islands. The rumor in Washington is that the place made vacant by Mr. Denison's promotion will be filled by William B. Patterson of Waterville, Me., who bears the endorsement of Senator Johnson. Mr. Johnson was an appointee of President Taft, but supported Roosevelt, and remained in office. He assisted assistant secretary of the treasury, Mr. James F. Curtis, in formulating a plan of reform in customs practices and of administration whereby it was reckoned that the Government would save some thing like $3,500,000 a year. As a result of their work the Board of Appraisers was reorganized and Appraisers or Shurretts was forced out. Mr. Denison is today a member of the Progressive party.

Mr. Denison is forty years old, was graduated from Harvard and was prominent in the Government's prosecution of the sugar frauds.

APPLE ORCHARDS OF VALUE IN THIS STATE

Manchester, Nov. 6.—Sanborn T. Worthen of 452 Pine street has made a mark as a successful grower of apples. Eleven years ago he became convinced that there was money in apples in New Hampshire and decided on securing an orchard on high ground, which was not subject to frosts out of season, he found a farm in his liking in Mount Vernon. There were about 300 trees on the farm, which was one of 115 acres, which he purchased it and now he has, including all kinds, 2100 trees.

Of the above number fully one-half are Baldwin. This variety Mr. Worthen regards as the most marketable of all the varieties, as they keep firm and hard into the late winter. He has, however, two other varieties, the Poodles and Pride of the North, which he rates very highly, and from the experience he has had with the few of these varieties which he has harvested, he finds that they are an admirable winter apple and keep hard and firm even longer than the Baldwin.

Mr. Worthen has just completed harvesting 833 barrels and they will net him above all expenses of fertilizing, spraying, harvesting and freighting $3 a barrel giving him a net income from his orchard this year practically $2500. Mr. Worthen tells the story of his apple culture as follows:

"On buying the farm the first thing I did was to put the plow to the orchard and after plowing it thoroughly I sent to Canada and purchased 30 tons of hard wood ashes. This I did on what is known as the apple year when the yield is heaviest in New Hampshire in order to have the trees feel the effects of the nutrients given the soil on the off year as apples command a higher price during off years. I cut the grass what there was each year and permitted it to rot on the ground, and then on every other year selecting the New Hampshire apple year for this work, I fertilized heavily. I sprayed the trees, their trunks and limbs, in the spring and late fall with a solution of five pounds of arsenic of lead to 50 gallons of water. This spraying is done the first of December and the first of April. Then in May, June and July I go over the limbs and foliage with a spraying of lime and sulphur and the result is as perfect an apple as can be grown. In fact I have no elder apples co-located for all that are harvested are either first or seconds and there are none left for the elder press."

"The first year that I owned the orchard I gathered but six barrels of apples. That was the year that I plowed up the ground and made use of the ashes. The next year, which was the off year in New Hampshire apple-growing, I harvested 600 barrels. The next year I gathered 500, and then 700. The following year the number of barrels was 650 and then, in 1907, I gathered the bumper crop of 1010 barrels."

"I market one-half of my crop this year in New York city, and the other half in Manchester. I am paid $3.50 a barrel, but taking all of my expenses into account they will net me $3 a barrel. I keep two men the year round on the farm, and keep live stock such as horses, cows, pigs and poultry and do a general farming business. I have set out 600 peach trees, and shall get excellent results next season. They began bearing a few peaches this year. "I find a tendency on the part of the young trees which I am constantly setting out to bear their best during the apple-bearing year, but by cultivating during the apple year, and making use of a generous amount of fertilizer, I am overcoming this and will make them bear during the off year. There were no signs of frost on my farm this year until Oct. 20, which shows that I was right in selecting high ground for my orchard."

"Besides the Baldwin, Poodles, and Pride of the North, I raise the McIntosh Red, Gravenstein, Northern Spy and King apples, but the Baldwin is the staple variety, most in demand, and consequently the best seller. I got my ideas for going into the apple business as a side issue while I was sick by reading agricultural papers and magazines whenever I found opportunity to do so, and the investment has proven profitable."

AMERICAN FLEET PASSES GIBRALTAR

Gibraltar, Nov. 6.—The squadron of nine United States battleships which is on its way to visit Mediterranean ports passed the Rock on its eastern voyage at an early hour this morning.

Great regret was expressed in Gibraltar that the vessels of the American fleet did not stay here for a time. The squadron which consists of the flagship Wyoming, the Utah, Florida, Arkansas, Delaware, Vermont, Connecticut, Kansas and Ohio, with the auxiliaries Cattle, Solace, Cyclops, Orion and Jason, will be divided into detachments, the Vermont and Ohio going to Marseilles, the Arkansas and Florida to Naples, the Connecticut and Kansas to Genoa, and the Utah and Delaware to Villefranche, while the Wyoming will make a trip in which she will call at Malta, Naples and Villefranche.

The movements of the smaller accompanying vessels will be under the direction of the commander of the squadron.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The Interstate Commerce Commission order regarding express rates was again extended today to Feb. 1 to give the companies more time to arrange for the change. It was to have been effective on Dec. 1 and has been postponed since before.

BONDSMEN RESPONSIBLE FOR WHOLE AMOUNT

Boston, Nov. 6.—The United States Circuit court of Appeals affirmed today the decision of the District Court in favor of the United States in its suit against James L. Gibson and other sureties on a bond furnished by them for Arthur W. Charles as postmaster at North Conway, N. H.

Charles was accused of taking two letters sent by banks to Fred G. Eastman and William H. Eastman, both of North Conway. Each letter contained $100. The Government sued the bondsmen to recover the $200 and was successful.

The sureties contended that since the liability of the Government on registered mail was limited to $50 on each letter, it could not recover more than that amount.

The court holds that while the Government's own liability is restricted as to paying out money from its own funds, it could recover the full amount taken which would doubtless be paid over to the real owners who had suffered the loss. It is also maintained by the court that the Government would get the money on an express trust for the benefit of the owners and under postal laws, where lost money is found, the Postoffice Department is authorized to return the same to the owners.

The banks forwarded the money on notes purported to have been signed by the Eastmans which were sent to the banks by mail. Both Eastmans denied knowledge of the notes.

Charles had been convicted of getting cash on money orders made out by himself in the name of others and was sent to the Federal prison.

STATE BOARD MAY LOOK AT POND SUMMER HOME IN KITTERY

Liable to Be an Expensive Proposition for the City to Handle.

Lieut. Governor-Elect Barry Writes to His Friends Here.

The South Pond may yet be cleaned up, under conditions which may not be taken kindly to by the taxpayers of Portsmouth.

This Herald learned today that the State Board of Health may be called here to investigate the pond and surroundings. If this is carried out and the board should order the city to clean up the pond, and do other work in the interest of health, what are we going to do about it?

This may be the result if the state board comes here for that purpose. Then the city would fully realize the loss of the gift of Hon. Woodbury Langdon.

Hon. Edward P. Barry, Lieut. Governor-Elect, of Massachusetts, is well known in this city. Mr. Barry and family have been summer residents in the banks of the Piscataqua, and a few years ago occupied "Wickatoughly Cottage," owned by Charles W. Gray in Kittery. Mr. Barry is recognizing congratulations from Mr. Gray on his election, adding that he and his family passed in the summer across the river, and stated that Gray Lodge may be the summer home of the governor of the Bay State in 1914.

PLANS ARE OUT FOR WORK

Consolidation Coal Co. Will Make Many Improvements at North End

Plans and specifications are out for many improvements on the docks of the Consolidation Coal Company at the North End. It is proposed to erect another tower for discharging and move the present building apparatus to another location. Storage sheds are to be built on the old Gray & Prime wharf for the loading of scows etc., and considerable track extension will be made along the water front. A machines hop will be added to the repair work. In fact all the so-called Sise property will be utilized by the company in the improvements which are expected to cost between $50,000 and $75,000 when completed.

NAVY YARD NEWS

Another Discharge Coming.

Thirteen women in the machinery division were given a notice of discharge today which will occur on Friday next owing to lack of work.

Will Command Reserve Fleet.

Rear Admiral Caperton, who was in command of the U. S. S. Maine when lost at this yard, will be detached from command of the Narragansett Bay naval station on Nov. 14, and the following day will take over command of the Atlantic reserve fleet at the Philadelphia navy yard. The armored cruiser Tennessee will be his flagship. Two members of his staff are already selected in Lieutenant Reuben B. Coffey for his secretary and Lieutenant John N. Ferguson for his lieutenant. The chief of staff will be selected later, but probably will be the captain of the Tennessee.

What's This Mean?

The matter of the naval prison underwent a thorough campaign inspection this afternoon by Major Theophrastus, commanding officer of the prison.

Two Sent To Concord

Two court-martialed men from the navy were sent to Concord, Mass. today on leave for the remainder of their sentences.

Wrong End To

It appears that nine men who were sent to the new barge yard to the yard today will cause a lot of extra work before the same can be properly handled by the contractors. The shipment came in wrong end to and it will be necessary to reverse each piece by the use of the dry dock crane to bring it right to the workmen.

has been moved and the officials of the company are looking for a quiet spell in this controversy that has certainly kept more than one man busy for the past month or more. The removal was made on Thursday by Foreman Stuart and his section crew. The crew is now located on Sagamore avenue, about 100 feet from the old station, and on city property by permission of the mayor. As long as nobody petitions for a sidewalk there the shanty is safe for a while longer.

Daniel Frohman presents MARY PICKFORD in "The Bishop's Carriage."—Four Reels.

A fascinating drama of the underworld that approaches tragedy and ends in romance. It is several months since picture lovers have seen on the screen, Mary Pickford in a new film. In this refined melodrama they will see Little Mary in a new light. In the Bishop's Carriage, from the book of Miriam Nicholson, is a crook play; nevertheless its treatment is so artistic, so delicate, so finished, that it will please every division of society. "In the Bishop's Carriage" is a strong vehicle for Mary Pickford's charming art.
